Catalogues Show of Indian Garment & Textile companies

The High Commission of India in Georgetown, Guyana is organizing an exhibition of Catalogues of Indian products at different locations in Guyana in December 2009.

The main aim of these catalogues show is to exploiting the goodwill and eventually expanding India's share in the Guyanese market and to showcase the business potentials of India, one of the fastest growing economies of the world. It would be an excellent opportunity for Indian apparel and textile companies to introduce their products through these catalogue shows in the markets of the Guyana. It may also note that Guyana is diasporic country and 45% of the population comprises people of Indian origin.

Interested members are requested to send catalogues / CD's and other promotional materials for display in the exhibitions directly to the Indian Mission at the following address:-
